

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE

PART ONE — ROAD TO AMERICA

Chapter I — A GLANCE AT THE MARITIME GENIUS OF THE NORSE.

— Character. — Ship-building. — Life and funeral of the King of the sea. — Piracy. — Virgins of the Shield [Les Vierges du Bouclier]. — The Norse are predestined to play a great role in the discovery of the world.

Chapter II — FIRST EXCURSIONS OF THE NORSE. — The Norse begin to move away from the Coasts. — Pirates sing of their exploits. — Harald Haarfager conquers Norway. — Harassed by pirates hiding in the Orkneys, he conquers the islands and stops the piracy. — The Peti and Papas. — Irish monks; their discoveries. — The Norse in the Faeroes.

Chapter III — DISCOVERY OF ICELAND. — Naddod goes to Iceland and gives it the name Snow-Land. — The Irish. — Proof of their stay in Iceland. — Gardar comes to Iceland to found a colony. — The cold and the look of the countryside makes him abandon his project. — He gives it the name Ice-Land. — In Scandinavian lands, this island is considered fertile and agreeable. — Ingolf, forced to leave Norway, searches for Iceland and goes there with Horsleif. — Death of Horsleif. — Ingolf transports his home from the southeast to the southwest. — His grave and ruins of the house of one of his sons. — Norwegian emigration after the battle of Hafurford. — all Iceland is colonized. — On this island Norse traditions have been written and preserved.

Chapter IV — DISCOVERY OF GREENLAND. — Gunnbjorn discovers the east coast of Greenland. — Legend of Hollur Geit. — Legend reported by Adam of Bremen. — Erik the Red rediscovers the land seen by Gunnbjorn. — Repulsed by the rigors of the climate, he goes south and settles in the west. — Construction of Brattahlid. — Aspect of the country. — Return to Iceland. — A democratic colony is founded on the west coast of Greenland.

Chapter V — BJARN HERJULFSON. — He comes to Iceland to spend the winter with his father. On hearing that his father is in Greenland, he leaves to find him. — Dangers of sailing on the Northern Ocean. — Catastrophe of the Lilloise. — Bjarn, carried by winds and currents, discovers the coast of America. — He goes back north and finds the home of his father.

PART TWO — THE CHILDREN OF ERIK THE RED.

Chapter I — LEIF THE LUCKY. — Leif at the court of Olaf Tryggvason. — He is baptized and returns to Greenland with a Norwegian priest. — He buys Bjarn's boat. — Erik cannot go with him. — Discovery of Helluland, Markland, and Vinland. — A German finds grapes. — The new country is named Vinland. — Return. — Rescue of Thorer and Gudrid. — Introduction of Christianity in Greenland.

Chapter II — THORVALD'S EXPEDITION. — With permission from Leif, Thorvald goes to Vinland. — His stay at Leifsbudir. — Explorations to the south. — Explorations to the north. — He is flung onto the coast and names Cape Cod Kjarlanes. — He claims land in the bay of Boston. — First encounter with Eskimos. — Thorvald, mortally wounded, is buried on a promontory called Krossanes. — Discovered of a Scandinavian grave on the island of Rainsford.

Chapter III — THORSTEIN'S ATTEMPT. — Thorstein marries Gudrid. — Raises sail to go search for his brother's ashes. — is pushed into polar regions by the winds. — Svart gives him hospitality. — Epidemic in Lysufjord. — Death of Thorstein. — His predictions. — Gudrid is brought back to Eriksfjord by Svart. — Thorfinn Karlsefni arrives in Greenland.

PART THREE — THORFINN KARLSEFNI AND GUDRID.

Chapter I — STRAUMFORD. — Karlsefni spends the winter at Brattahlid. — He marries Gudrid. — He leaves with 160 men to colonize Vinland. — He touches Helluland, Markland, Furdustrandir, and comes to Straumford. — Culture, explorations, famine, disappearance of Thorhall. — Thorhall, found, misses his old gods, sings of his disappointments; leaves Thorfinn. — His song of departure. — He is shipwrecked on the coast of Ireland and dies a slave. — Karlsefni leaves for Leifsbudir.

Chapter II — THORFINNSBUDIR. — Arrival at Mount-Hop. — Appearance of Skraelings. — Dealings with Skraelings. — Birth of Snorre. — Fight with the Skraelings. — Courageous conduct of Freyda. — Abandonment of Throfinnsbudir.

Chapter III — DIGHTON WRITING-ROCK. — Its site and form. — Opinion of antiquarians on the inscription. — Rafn and Magnusen identify its nature. — Concordance of the rock's inscriptions with Thorfinn's Saga. — Examinations of the part of the inscription not explained by Magnusen. — Explanation of the second phonetic part. — Observation of the crudeness of the inscription's design.

Chapter IV — RETURN TO STRAUMFORD. — Excursions to the south and north. — The Unipeds. — Thorfinn's return to Greenland. — The land of white men. — Bjarni Grimolfson's generous conduct. — Thofinn in Norway, later in Iceland. — Gudrid makes a pilgrimage to Rome. — Descendants of Thorfinn and Gudrid.

Chapter V — FREYDA. — Freyda returns to Vinland with brothers Helge and Finnborge. — Their deceitfulness. — She cuts the throats of the two brothers and their companions, and kills five women with her bare hands. — Return to Eriksfjord. — She ends her days despised. — Antiquities and graves in Fall-River.

Chapter VI — Ship carried by storm from the coast of Markland to the coast of Iceland. — Stories of Adam of Bremen and Orderic Vital. — Faeroese song of Finn Pulcer.

PART FOUR — SOUTHERN EXCURSIONS

Chapter I — ARI MARSON. — Ari flung onto the coast of Hvitramannaland. — Becomes tribal chief.

Chapter II — BJORN ASBRANDSON BREIDVIKAKAPPI — Amours of Bjorn and Thurida. — Bjorn is exiled from Iceland and takes refuge with the Vikingar. — Returns to Iceland and gives in to his passion again. — His encounter with [the gode] of Helgafell. — He leaves Iceland again, forever. — Gudleif comes to an unknown country. — He is saved by an old man believed to be Bjorn.

Chapter III — HERVADOR. — He spends the winter in Hvitramannaland. — Fight against the Skraelings. — Discovery on the Potomac of the grave of one of his companions.

Chapter IV — MADOC AP OWEN. — Irish traditions. — Madoc's voyage.

PART FIVE — NORTHERN EXCURSIONS.

Chapter I — The Norse extend their settlements as far as Disco Bay. — Helg the storyteller. — the Norse on the Isle of Women, near 72°50' north latitude, in 1135.

Chapter II — Excursion of three Greenlandic priests into Barrow Straits and Wellington Canal.

Chapter III — Icelandic priests take refuge in the New World. — Landa-Rolf's expeditions. — Epidemic. — Geographer Ivar Bardson.

PART SIX — CHRISTIAN PREACHING IN AMERICA

Chapter I — ERIK-UPSI. — Jonus killed while preaching Christianity in America. — Erik-Upsi resigns as bishop of Gardar in order to remain in America. — Ancient monument in Rhode Island. — Cult of the Cross in Gaspée.

Chapter II — America and Greenland pay the tithe and Peter's Pence.

PART SEVEN — NEW DISCOVERY OF AMERICA AT THE END OF THE 14th CENTURY.

Chapter Unique. — Sinclair family. — Its origin and accession to the earldom of the Orkneys. — Henry Sinclair's conflict with his competitors. — Arrival of Nicolo Zeno in Frisland. — Conquest of Frisland. — Arrival of Antonio Zeno. — Excursions to the Shetlands against the pirates. — Excursions to Ireland and Greenland. — Story of an old Frisland mariner about his voyages in America. — Sinclair sets up in Estotiland (Nova Scotia or New Brunswick).

PART EIGHT — DECLINE AND COLLAPSE OF NORSE COLONIES IN AMERICA.

Chapter I — Cause of collapse. — Humboldt's opinion of the existence of an ice blockage around Greenland. — Reconciliation of the American colonies with the Norwegian crown. — The Black Plague of 1347 to 1351. — Margaret of Waldemar declares the colonies the domain of the crown.

Chapter II — PIRATES. — The Victualie Braedre distresses the Scandinavian states. — Are vanquished and exiled. — Part of the gang sets up its hideout in the vicinity of Greenland. — The Huitserk. — Pining and Pothorst. — A new pirate gang leaves English ports. — John of Denmark hunts the Northern seas and takes part of the credit for destroying the corsairs of Greenland.

PART NINE — ARCHAEOLOGICAL PROOFS OF NORSE SETTLEMENT IN AMERICA.

Chapter Unique. — Entrenchments and burial mounds in North and Central America. — Burial mounds in Denmark and Iceland. — Military camps in Ireland. — Ancient Norse city in Brazil. — Mexican traditions. — List of bishops who occupied the See of Gardar from 1121 to 1535.

